The Little Sister of the Poor have provided over 180 years of caring and service to the aged poor throughout the world. Since 1869, we have cared for over 6500 needy elderly in Louisville regardless of race, creed or national origin.

At St. Joseph's, located behind Audubon Hospital, 50 residents are provided quality care in an atmosphere of respect and dignity tailored to each individual's need.

The Little Sisters also operate the Jeanne Jugan Apartments that accommodate up to 26 low-income seniors, as well as a Senior Day Center that serves the wider community.
